

Online Placement Resources

UVI provides support for its students to become successful professionals. Career Services Department works with the students and, if necessary, with their family as they discover the benefits of studying at Universal Vocational Institute. UVI's administration defines guidance services as to engage, support and challenge students to embrace responsibility for their professional careers as they prepare for a lifetime of service and job market impact.

From the point of admission, the student receives assistance from the academic department to explore various career opportunities and to make a career choice while learning about future job opportunities in the chosen field.

Upon graduation, the institution provides career counseling and educational planning to assist the student in seeking employment through the following activities:

- Creating resumes and cover letters
- Interest and personality assessments
- Interviewing and job search strategies

Maximize your Job Search...

This is a list of notable employment websites used by the Career Services Department: These website are employment online site for dealing specifically with employment careers.

<http://www.indeed.com>

Indeed is the #1 job site with millions of job listings from thousands of websites, including company career sites, job boards, newspaper classifieds, associations and other online sources of job postings.

Users can also upload a resume and get a personalized resume link to share with employers. You'll also find job search tips and discussions forums for job seekers.

<http://www.careerbuilder.com/>

Career Builder is one of the largest job boards, providing job listings, resume posting, and career advice and resources to job seekers.

CareerBuilder secures job listings directly from employers and has expanded local listings by partnering with many newspapers to incorporate their online classifieds.

<http://www.dice.com/>

Dice is the leading site for tech job seekers. You can search by company, job titles, skills, keyword, company, employment type and location. Registered users can upload a search resume, a confidential resume, get salary information, store resumes and cover letters, and track jobs.

<http://www.monster.com/>

Monster is one of the original job boards and has expanded to include a variety of other resources and apps for job seekers. Monster users can search for (and) apply for jobs online, post a resume, review company profiles and get salary information and career advice.

<http://www.simplyhired.com/>

SimplyHired operates one of the world's largest job search engines, and connects job seekers and employers through its powerful search engine platform which aggregates jobs from newspapers, employer's websites and job boards. The site provides access to millions of job openings across all job categories and industries, reaching job seekers on the web, social networks, mobile devices, email and through its exclusive network of thousands of partner site.

<http://us.jobs/>

Job seekers using US.jobs for their employment search have access to a database of a million+ unique, verified positions from nationwide employers. US.jobs is derived from a partnership between the Direct Employers Association and the National Association of State Workforce Agencies (NASWA) designed to improve the labor market and directly connect employers and job seekers.

<http://www.job.com/>

Job.com has over 2 Million Jobs available. Search for local jobs, get email job alerts, post resume online and career advice all in one place.

<http://www.glassdoor.com/>

Glassdoor has over 10 million jobs and get an inside look at companies. Find Open Jobs at Any Company Glassdoor finds all jobs at all companies, so you can search them all in one place with Glassdoor's salary data, you'll know the job's salary before you apply. Read Reviews from Employees, get an inside look at any job or company, so you can find a job you'll love.